Dear Church Family,

Jennifer and I have an announcement that is bittersweet for us. As many of you know, we will be leaving First Baptist Cleveland and the city of Cleveland, MS at the end of this month in order to serve the Lord at Longview Heights Baptist Church in Olive Branch. It's bitter for us because we are saying goodbye to our beloved FBCC family with hearts full of friends and memories of sharing life together. But it's also a sweet season for us because we are going on a new adventure in serving the Lord in the area of MS that I call home.

Over the last ten years, you have loved our family and supported the ministries we have initiated during our time here. We thank God for you and for all He has allowed us to watch Him do in this past decade! We have witnessed God provide unity and joy during a season of renovation and transition. We have watched God use a mission trip to birth a ministry in Kenya. We have experienced God growing His church in such a way that we needed a new worship service and Sunday school hour. And, we have seen God reach people and grow believers into fully devoted followers of Christ. In all of these things God has been glorified, and we have been blessed to be a part of His work here.

As we say our goodbyes, please know that we will always love you and will be praying for you. We know that God will continue to bless His church in Cleveland as you continue to seek and obey Him and serve the Lord and those He places around you.

Blessings,

James Walker
